

Online Graduate Faculty Opportunities

National American University's online graduate faculty represents a variety of professional disciplines including business, human resource management, information technology, and health care management; serving students from around the world. National American University continuously accepts inquiries from experienced adjunct graduate faculty interested in instructional appointment to the online graduate campus. Based on the biographical detail provided, individual profiles are maintained in an active database which is the primary source of information used by the program coordinator of the distance learning graduate campus in selection of new faculty candidates as opportunities become available.

At the present time, NAU Online is only extending new faculty employment opportunities to candidates who reside in the following states:

Alabama, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and Wyoming.

Minimum Qualifications for Candidacy:

- A minimum of a doctoral degree in the field of assignment and five or more year's of professional experience in work directly related to his or her assigned teaching responsibilities; has extensive and substantial documented successful teaching experience in the area of assigned teaching responsibilities; and demonstrates involvement in meaningful research and/or programs for the enhancement of pedagogical skills.
- Recent and relevant paid instructional experience in the higher learning online environment. WebCT experience preferred.

Please submit an employment application (www.national.edu), letter of interest and current resume to:
Associate Academic Dean, Harold D. Buckingham Graduate School,
5301 S. Highway 16, Suite 200 Rapid City, SD 57701